

8. If audio recording is not permitted by the trial court judge, radio recorders may be taken into the courtroom so long as they are not turned on and remain inside an enclosed case or bag, unless specifically prohibited by the trial court judge.
9. Media personnel and members of the public shall not attempt to photograph or interview any juror serving in the Central Arraignment Courthouse unless the juror has been excused from further jury service. After a case is concluded, media and members of the public may interview jurors with their consent and in the designated media areas while in the courthouse.
10. At no time shall any grouping of people in any hallway, entrance or exit become so large as to prevent normal movement of people. The interview shall be moved to the outside of the courthouse.
